STUDENT GOVERNMENT

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

Tim Ingram has been more than successful in fulfilling his duties as Associated Student Body President. Although he has had many obligations to keep him busy, Tim has been very active in California Scholarship Federation, National Honor Society, and Key Club. The Western Student Body will remember Tim Ingram for the remarkable job he has done for Western High School.

LEAD SCHOOL GOVERNMENT

TERRY MILLER
Vice-President

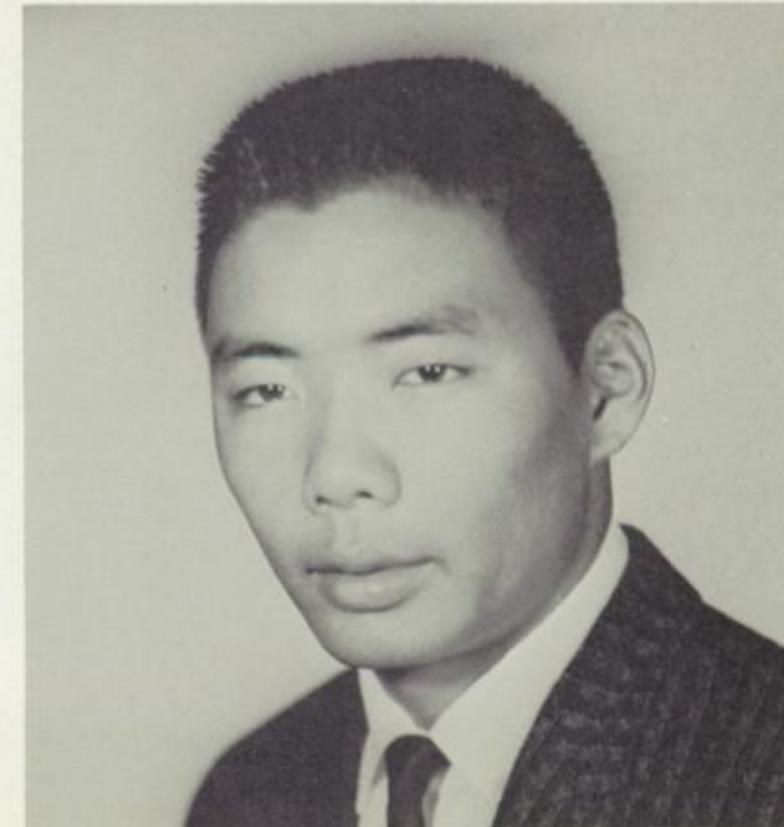

Making up the outstanding student leaders of the Western campus are Tim Ingram, Student Body President; Terry Miller, Vice-President; Linda Fowler, Secretary; and Robert Yukihiro, Treasurer. They have successfully fulfilled their duties as student officers as well as participating in various other school activities. Much of their time has been spent attending the three lengthy council meetings a week.

Assisting Tim Ingram with many duties, Terry Miller also served as Student Congress President. Linda Fowler capably took minutes of the council meetings and carried out the other responsibilities of a secretary. Robert Yukihiro has done a fine job of balancing the budget and keeping financial records for the student clubs. Even with their time consuming jobs, they have shown fine academic progress in school.

CLASSES

PIONEER

The Pioneer Annual Staff of 1960-61 introduced the tradition of selecting a Patty and Paul Pioneer. These outstanding seniors, a girl and a boy, chosen by the class of 1962, were selected on the basis of scholarship, citizenship, service to the school, and leadership. This is one of the most honorable and deserving awards that can be bestowed upon any senior and one which should be regarded as the highest achievement on the Pioneer campus.

PATTY PIONEER

BARBARA DUKE

As its most outstanding senior girl for the year '61-'62 the senior class has chosen Barbara Duke. Barbara has attended Western for the past three years and has contributed much to its activities and honors.

Being an active member of the Silhouettes Drill Team for the past two years has kept her quite busy, but Barbara has still found time to belong to many other organizations. She has been a member of the California Scholarship Federation for the past three years, this year assuming the role of secretary, and she is also a member of the National Honor Society.

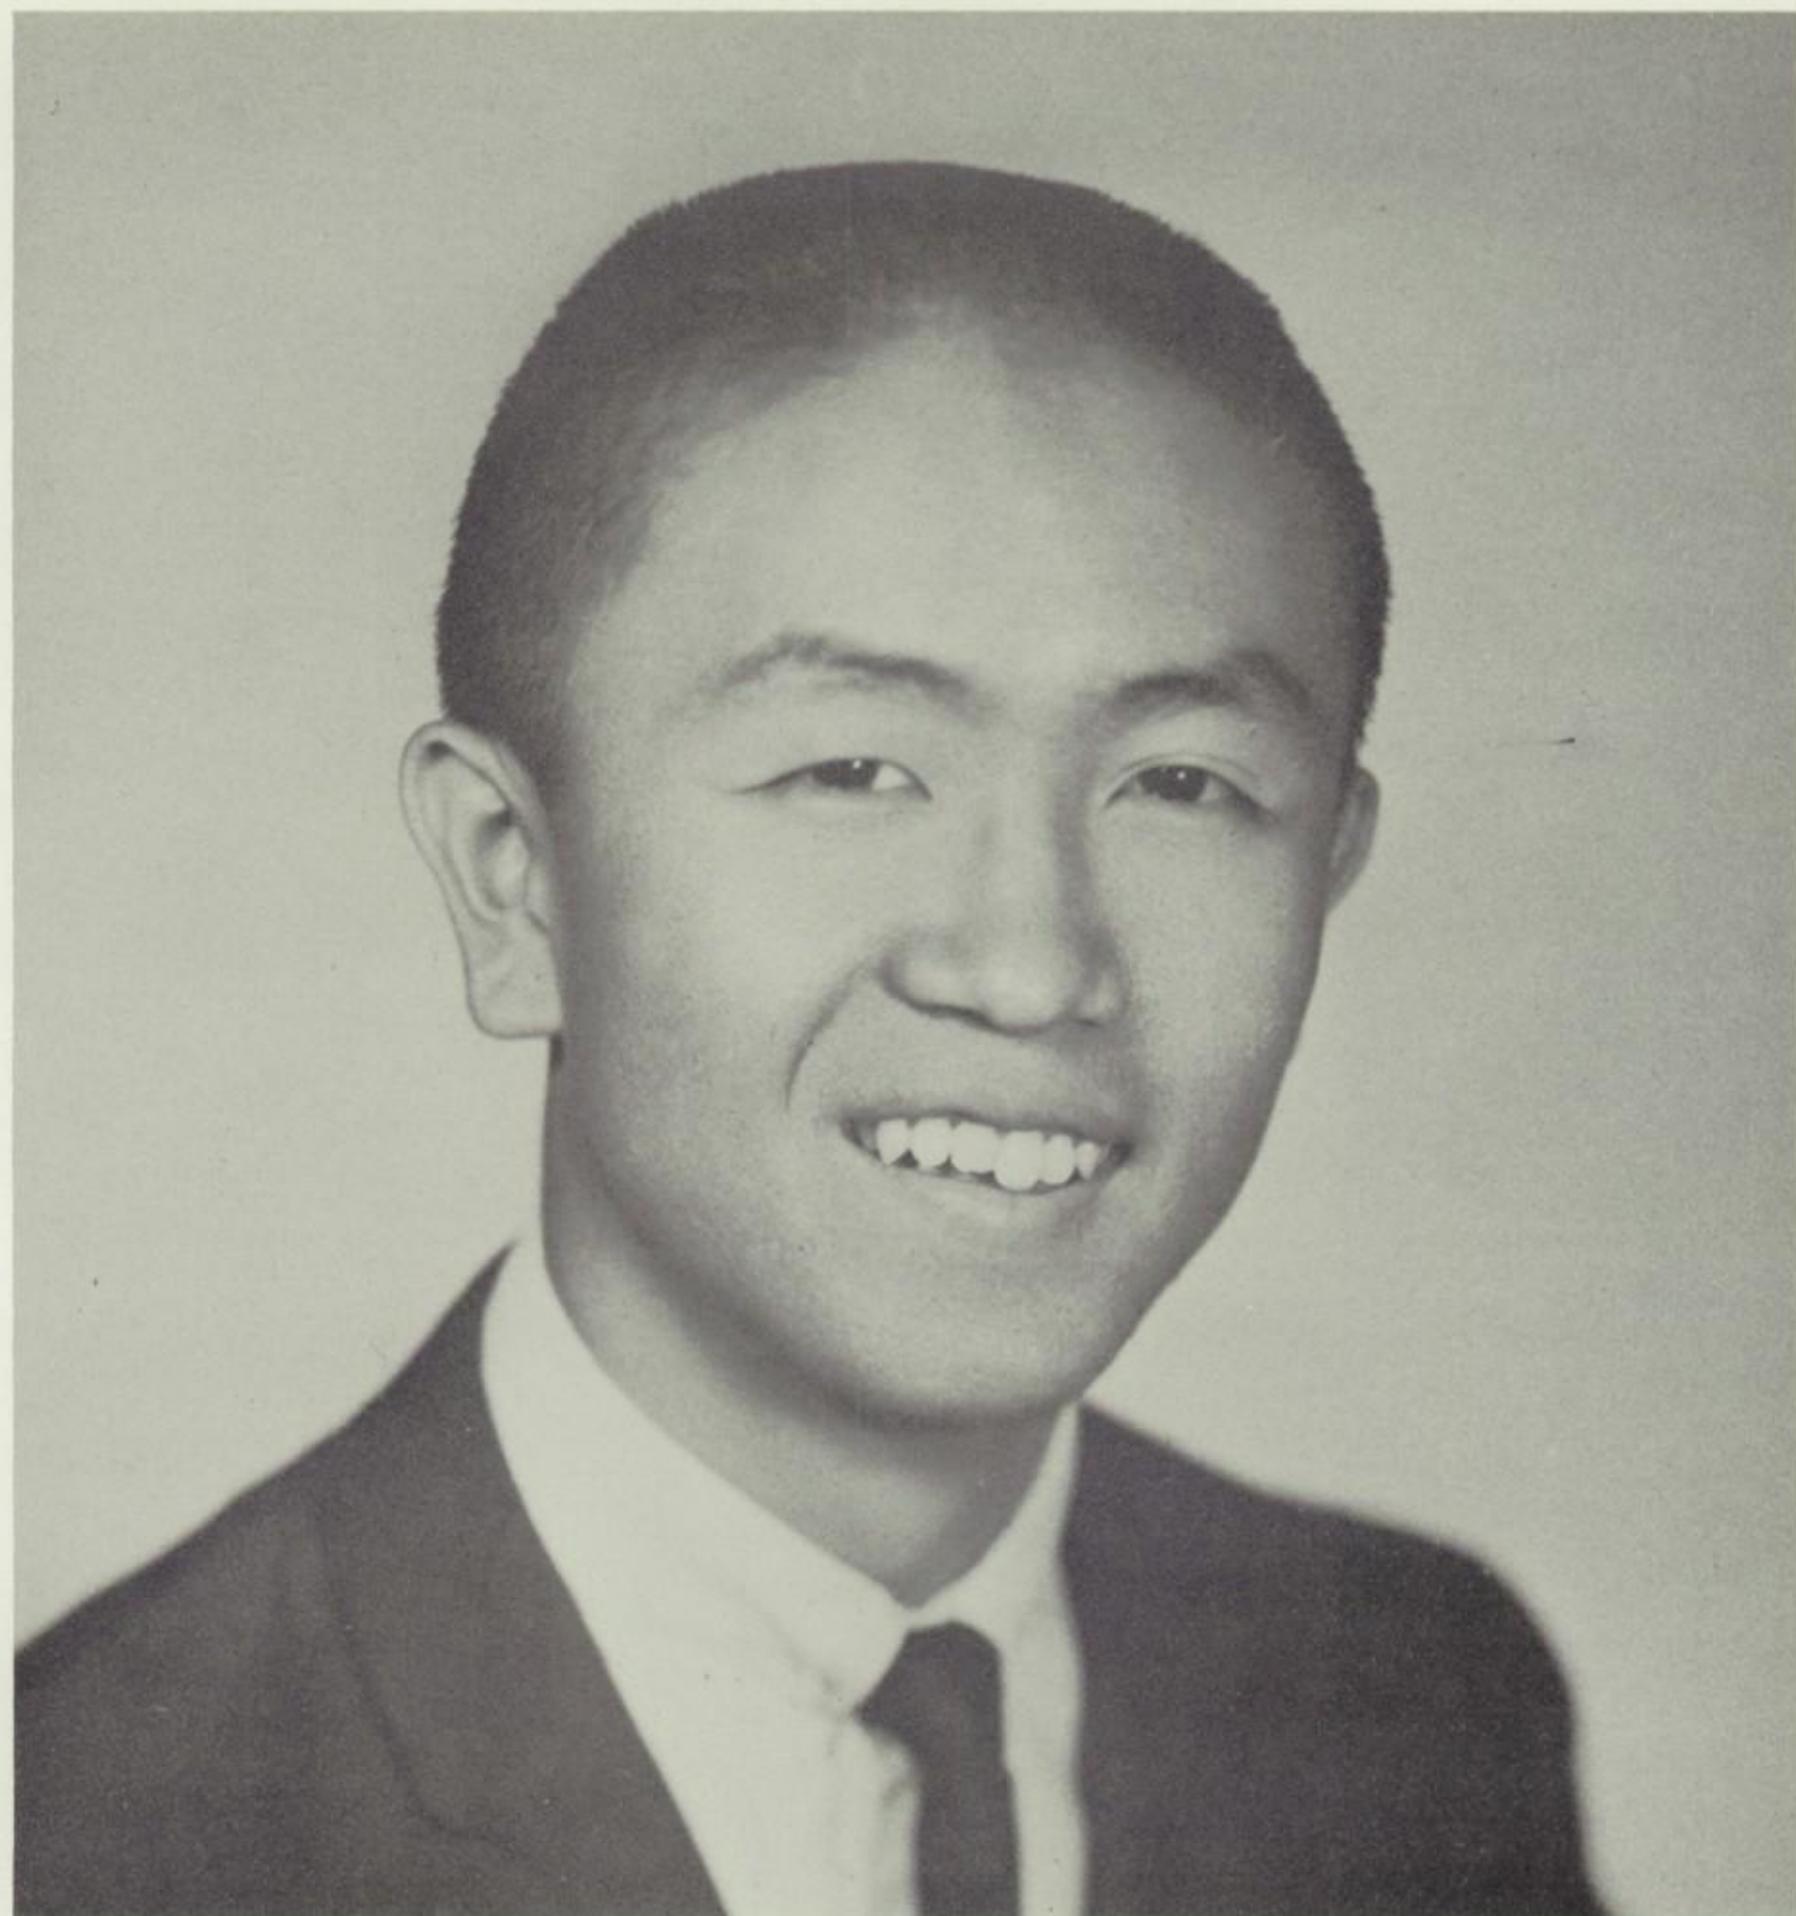

During football season Barbara was chosen as one of the five finalists for Homecoming Queen, and throughout the course of the year she has participated in many speech contests. She was also honored as being "Pioneer of the Month" for February. Along with all this Barbara has still managed to maintain an A grade average.

Barbara's wonderful personality and winning smile have gained her many friends, making her one of the most popular girls on campus. She has certainly proven her place as Western's second "Patty Pioneer!"

The classes of '62, '63, and '64, extend their heartiest congratulations and best wishes to you, Barbara, for your many fine contributions in helping to make Western a great school of which every Pioneer can be proud.

PAUL PIONEER

TAK MORIMOTO

The class of '62 has chosen Tak Morimoto as its most outstanding boy of the year. Tak was selected for his fine qualities of leadership, scholastic achievement, and citizenship.

Throughout the year Tak has served his school as Senior Class President and as a member of Student Council. In his role as Senior Class President Tak has headed many committees such as Senior Dues Cards and Senior dance committees, and he has presided over senior house meetings. Tak has also participated in school plays and he is an active member of the California Scholarship Federation. During the month of November Tak received the award of "Pioneer of the Month."

Along the sports line Tak has been a member of the Varsity Football Team this year and in the past two years he has played on the "C" and "B" football teams. He has also been a member of the Varsity Tennis Team for two consecutive years and a member of the Junior Varsity team for one year.

Keeping up this busy schedule however, has not kept Tak from maintaining a high grade average.

We the student body would like to thank you Tak, and extend to you congratulations, best wishes, and sincere appreciation for the fine job you've done in helping to make Western a great school.

The senior class officers of 1961-62 have done an exceptional job in leading, not only the senior class, but also in influencing the entire student body.

The senior class has had many money-raising activities throughout the year. For football games, they sold pennants, for Homecoming they sold the traditional blue and white mums. During the rest of the year the senior class sponsored two post-game dances, the Senior Sneak, the Senior Stomp, and the Fun Nite with Anaheim. We would like to thank the Senior class officers for helping to make 1961-62 so successful.

SENIOR HOUSE

Under the capable leadership of the senior class officers, Tak Moromoto, president, Kim Smith, vice president; Verjean Rattenbury, secretary; and Frank Hatanaka, treasurer, this year's Senior House, working closely with the administration, established some of the policies and standards which guided our seniors through the year. Some of the purposes of the house were to act as a link of communication between the senior class and the administration and student body, to communicate the ideas and information pertinent to the senior class as a whole, to make recommendations for the senior gift, and most important of all, to give each senior a representative voice in student government.

This year the senior house distributed information concerning senior dress-up day and helped tremendously in the sale of senior dues cards. It kept the students well informed of senior activities and helped to raise the class spirit. This organization formed the backbone for Western's greatest class ever: the class of '62.

The junior class officers have done a good job leading the junior class with their many activities during the year 1961-1962. They have sponsored such activities as the Howdy Co-Rec Nite, the Beachcomber's Ball, and the biggest activity of the year—the Junior-Senior Prom.

We would like to thank the junior class for a job well done and to wish them the best in the years to come. We are confident that they are ready to take over the leadership of Western High for the 1962-1963 school year.

The Sophomore Class came to Western this year eager to join the Pioneer Student Body. Western is very proud of our Sophomores as they gave their all to the backing of school athletic teams and activities. The Class of '64 started out with a successful year sponsoring a post-game dance, and later in the year in sponsoring the Sophomore Sweetheart Ball.

Their capable officers led the class through a very successful year. We are confident that our Sophomores will continue to build Western and keep her the wonderful school she now is.

For many years the A Cappella Choir has used the "Living Christmas Tree" as its trademark. Under the direction of Mr. Encheff, the choir has had still another successful year and has brought even more recognition to Western. Here they are shown in their performance for the Christmas assembly. The choir brought out the true meaning of Christmas with such songs as: "The Twelve Days Of Christmas", "Ring, O Ye Bells," "Vigil", and "Shepherds Awake." Presenting the program along with Western's band, the choir brought the assembly to a close with the "Hallelujah Chorus."

PIONEER PRESS

First Semester Editor
Sandy Miller

Under the capable leadership of Sandy Miller, first semester editor, and Joyce Gaines, second semester editor, the "Pioneer Press" staff has done an admirable job of producing this year's school paper. The publishing of a school paper is not by any means an easy task. Collecting all the news on campus and presenting it to the student body in an interesting manner involves a great deal of work. Stories to write, interviews to hold, deadline after deadline to meet, and constantly asking the questions: Who? What? When? Where? How? and Why? are just a small part of publishing a school paper.

Copy to write, layouts to make-up, pictures to identify, all this is just a small part of the many problems the Pioneer staff had to overcome in producing the 1962 Pioneer.

Over half of this year's staff was new and unacquainted with yearbook production. With the help of a few returning members, the new staff learned quickly and efficiently. This year the staff welcomed Mr. George Tolhurst to Western and it was under his capable guidance that we were able to produce the yearbook. Sue Juratsch, Editor-in-Chief, and Kathy Dahlgren, Assistant Editor, have both worked on the yearbook staff for two years.

AND NEW IDEAS

Peggy Lake and Barbara Lumley scan the Clubs and Activities section of previous annuals.

Margie Beggs, Clubs and Activities, points out last year's club section to Jim Parris, staff photographer.

Other members who served on the staff for two years are: Barbara Lumley, Patty Rosenblum, Pam Randall, Sandy Hanson, Joyce Gaines, Sally Green, Margie Beggs, and Dave Oltman. New staff members are: Barbara Russo, Peggy Lake, Judy Sparks, Karen Rolle, Penny Adams, Barbara Engdahl, Maxine Grebbs, and Tom Cranmer. Since all the old staff members are Seniors, next year's Editor and Assistant Editor will be chosen from the new Sophomore and Junior members.

SILHOUETTES

Colleen Williams; Phyllis Peterson, head leader; and Julie Deck.

This year has brought to a close another successful season for Western High School's Silhouette drill team. As usual, they have kept a busy schedule, and have managed to spread the name of Western even farther.

Their parade schedule has included Buena Park Silverado Days, where they took top honors for the third consecutive year; the Hawthorne Band Review, where they placed first against some very stiff competition, as well as the Anaheim Halloween Celebration parade, the Huntington Park Christmas Parade and Disneyland's All Nations Parade.

The drill team brought their year to an official close with the presentation of their Spring Show. Performing to a capacity crowd, the Silhouettes executed their precision march routines, as well as such old favorites as the "Charleston," "St. Louis Blues March" and "Till I Waltz Again With You."

New numbers performed were "Because They're Young," "Don't Fence Me In," and "The March of the Siamese Children." At this show the two new assistant leaders, as well as the head leader for next year were announced.

The Silhouettes drill team, always a source of pride to the Western Student Body, has become a vital part of the school. They have played a big part in uniting the spirit of Western. Their performances at football half-times and their appearance in many of the pep assemblies have been only a small part of their contribution, however. More important is the example which they have set for other students. By living up to the high standards on which they base their organization, through participation in various clubs, and by maintaining a high scholastic average, these girls have helped to give the title "Pioneer" a special distinction.

ON PARADE

Pictured above are the Drill Team substitutes modeling the Black Dress and Cowgirl outfits. Both of these uniforms, along with the Top Hat and Tails, are part of the main line's wardrobe.

Our six perky, high spirited Songleaders were seen leading Pioneers during the ever important sports events. Their precision routines brought many compliments from the Pioneer crowd as well as from other schools. Their colorful blue and white uniforms brought much of the color to many Pioneer events. Among their many activities was acting as Banner Bearers during parades. Marching in front of the band, they helped to strengthen the name of Western. Selected as alternate Banner Bearers for this year were: Sue Sampson, Senior; Sharon Doblin, Junior; and Welhelmina Hurkmans, Junior.

ACTIVE THROUGHOUT YEAR

Linda Cooper, Donna Goles, de Ann Martin, Kathy Dahlgren, and Leslie Crews kept Pioneer spirit high during Football Season.

Throughout the year the "Power Packed Five" lead the Pioneers in cheering at all of the football and basketball games. These five spirited girls are de Ann Martin (Senior), Kathy Dahlgren (Senior), Leslie Crews (Junior), Linda Cooper (Senior), and Donna Goles (Senior). Weekly workouts proved worthwhile when the girls took first place in their division at the National Cheerleading College held at Redlands University last summer.

Sponsor, Miss Owline Gregory helps head cheerleader, de Ann Martin with arm movements.

Powerful "Five" won admiration from all Pioneers during Basketball Pep Rallies and Games.

The Orange County Sports Writers bestowed another honor upon the group. They were voted The Out-Standing Cheerleaders of Orange County in 1962. Four out of the five Cheerleaders will be graduating this June leaving Leslie Crews the position of being the only returning Cheerleader. Linda Cooper and de Ann Martin were both on last year's cheering squad, while Donna Goles, Leslie Crews, and Kathy Dahlgren were new to this year's cheering squad.

DRAMA

BEHIND THE SCENES: Meet the man behind the scenes. All fantasy stories seem to have a mysterious genie who performs what we call miracle tasks.

The Western Drama Department also has its genie, with one exception; he is not mysterious but very true to life. You may know him as Mr. Eugene Mitch.

When we attend our school plays, we think how clever our friends are to play their parts so well. Little do we realize it is due to the fine coaching of the director that the cast is living, not playing, their parts. Many, many hours of hard work, thought, and patience are put into the rehearsals which perfect the performance we see in only a few hours.

Mr. Mitch is seen directing Terry Miller, Randy Strictland, and Sue Etheridge in a scene from "Out of the Frying Pan."

We of Western High would like to express our sincerest appreciation to Mr. Mitch, who during his years at Western has given of himself most generously. It has been through his efforts and drive behind the drama department that these well remembered nights were made possible.

"OUT OF THE FRYING PAN"

Muriel, portrayed by Sue Etheridge, shows delight as she learns she is going to be in the Broadway play with the others.

"Ladies don't sweat, they glow!"

George (Terry Miller) pretends he is insane, and is carried away by his roommates (Randy Stricklin and Kerry Roland).

"THE SKIN OF OUR TEETH"

Fight takes place between father (Jim Gudath) and son (Kerry Roland).

Mrs. Antrobus (LaVonne Oakley) tells Gladys (Sherrie Oliphant) to put her dress down as Henry (Kerry Roland) looks on. The house maid, Sabina (Colleen Williams) is busy flirting with Mr. Antrobus (Jim Gudath).

'Caught in the act'

Love scenes can at times be embarrassing to rehearse.
Here, the actors are caught out of character.

Diane Mead as Julie is telling LaVonne of her hopes and desires in life.

Jim Gudath tries to persuade Randy Strickland to help him hold up train.

World famous Jean Durand and accompanist provided the student body with a variety of folk songs, in French, Creole, and English. Mr. Durand's warmth and great sense of humor reflected on everyone.

Mr. Jackman leads the band in a number at one of Western's pep assemblies. These songs added to the spirit shown by the student body.

Charley Aguinaga, Western's 24, tackles a Huntington Beach Oiler in the surprise upset with Huntington Beach.

Western came up from under four consecutive losses from the start of the season to dump Huntington Beach, 25-6, during the Pioneers' Second Annual Homecoming Game. The Western Varsity has never lost a Homecoming Game.

Halfback Richard Cuevas rebounded with a punt in the opening quarter for 50 yards and the first touchdown of the game. Dennis Kidwell failed to put up the extra point.

The Oilers deadlocked the game when they scrambled for a fumble on Western's 26 yard line.

Barry Coburn quickly put Western in front to stay when he made a two yard dive in the second quarter, climaxing a 44 yard drive. The try for conversion failed.

Bill Adams ran 56 yards for the third touchdown on a counterplay by hurdling an Oiler at scrimmage and flashing untouched past Huntington's defense into the end zone.

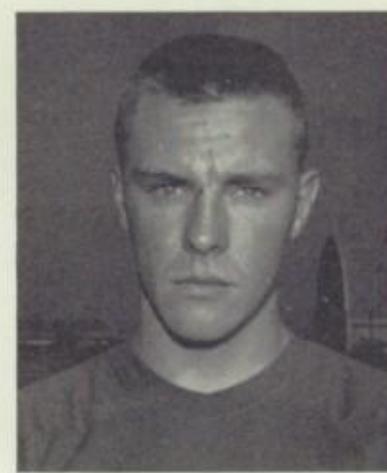

Vern Keiser intercepted a pass and snared Western's final touchdown.

Western lost a heavy decision to the John Muir Mustangs on September 29, at Horrell Field in Pasadena. This was the last practice game for Western. The final score in the game, Muir—32, Western—0.

Muir took the lead from the start as they ran the ball back to the Pioneer 22 yard line after Western was unable to advance after the kickoff.

At the half time the score was Muir—19, Western—0, but during the third quarter, the Pioneers threatened to score when they reached the Mustangs' 24 yard line. However, they failed to attain their goal as the drive stalled at that point.

The Mustangs tallied again in the third quarter, then added their final score in the early portion of the final stanza when Julius Clark, number 24, countered from the eight yard line. Out of five possible conversions, Muir made only 2.

AND HONORED PLAYERS

Picking the player of the week was a difficult and tedious job requiring much deliberation before the final choice was made.

After each football game, coach Don Davis selected the three top players. These outstanding candidates were the three potential players of the week.

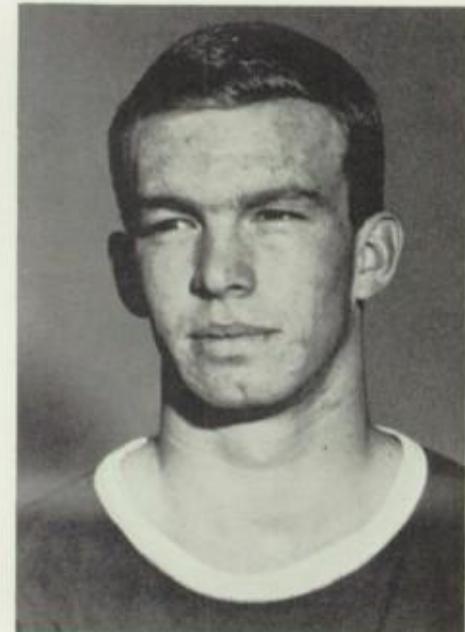

Their names were submitted to the Booster club, where the final choice was made.

Their names were announced at a Banquet in December held in the girls' gym at Western.

The Cee football team lost its chance for a first place tie by losing to Anaheim, 34-13, placing second in the Sunset League.

This fine squad was under the able leadership of Coach Calvin Johnson and his assistant, Coach Bob Wilton.

Other than Anaheim, Western lost to only one opponent—Santa Ana, 35-14 in league competition.

As a result, the Pioneers hold a league record of five wins and two losses, and a seasonal standing of six wins and three losses.

Last year's seasonal scores totaled six wins and two losses.

All in all the Cee's '61-'62 football season was quite successful.

This year the junior varsity basketball squad proved to be a team possessing fine potential. Under the leadership of Coach Van Horn, the team returned a league record of four wins and ten losses.

The squad displayed good sportsmanship, both at home and away, substantiating the theory that learning how to lose pleasantly is as important as proving your school to be an athletic wonder.

The team, at workouts in the gymnasium, in running the track, and during contests with other schools, has given Western the reputation of being a fine school with a promising future.

The team was led to many many victories through the unlimited efforts of Coach Van Horne.

Under the competent direction of Coach Dick Juliano, the varsity wrestling team has shown itself to be an essential element of the Western Pioneer athletic program. The squad devoted many long, exhausting hours to workouts in the adaptive room, treks across the field, and fought many schools during a very successful season.

The team did not compete in a league this year, but next year's team will belong to Sunset League.

The Western High Student Body has much to thank the squad for: the recognition they gave our school, the devotion they gave to their duty, and the promise they give for years to come.

J.V. WRESTLING

Each year, Western Pioneers anticipate the naming of the "Athlete of the Year." A committee of coaches makes this decision, and this year the vote fell to Don Conkey.

A member of this year's graduating class, Don proved himself to be an outstanding wrestler. He won for himself the honor of wrestling in the C.I.F. finals. Don had previously won all of his matches in the semi-finals, defeating boys representing approximately forty high schools.

Besides holding the title in the 148 pound event in wrestling, he has lettered in both junior varsity and "B" football.

The Pioneers congratulate Don on his achieving the coveted title "Athlete of the Year," and for focusing the spotlight upon Western High School in the field of sports.

GIRL OF THE YEAR

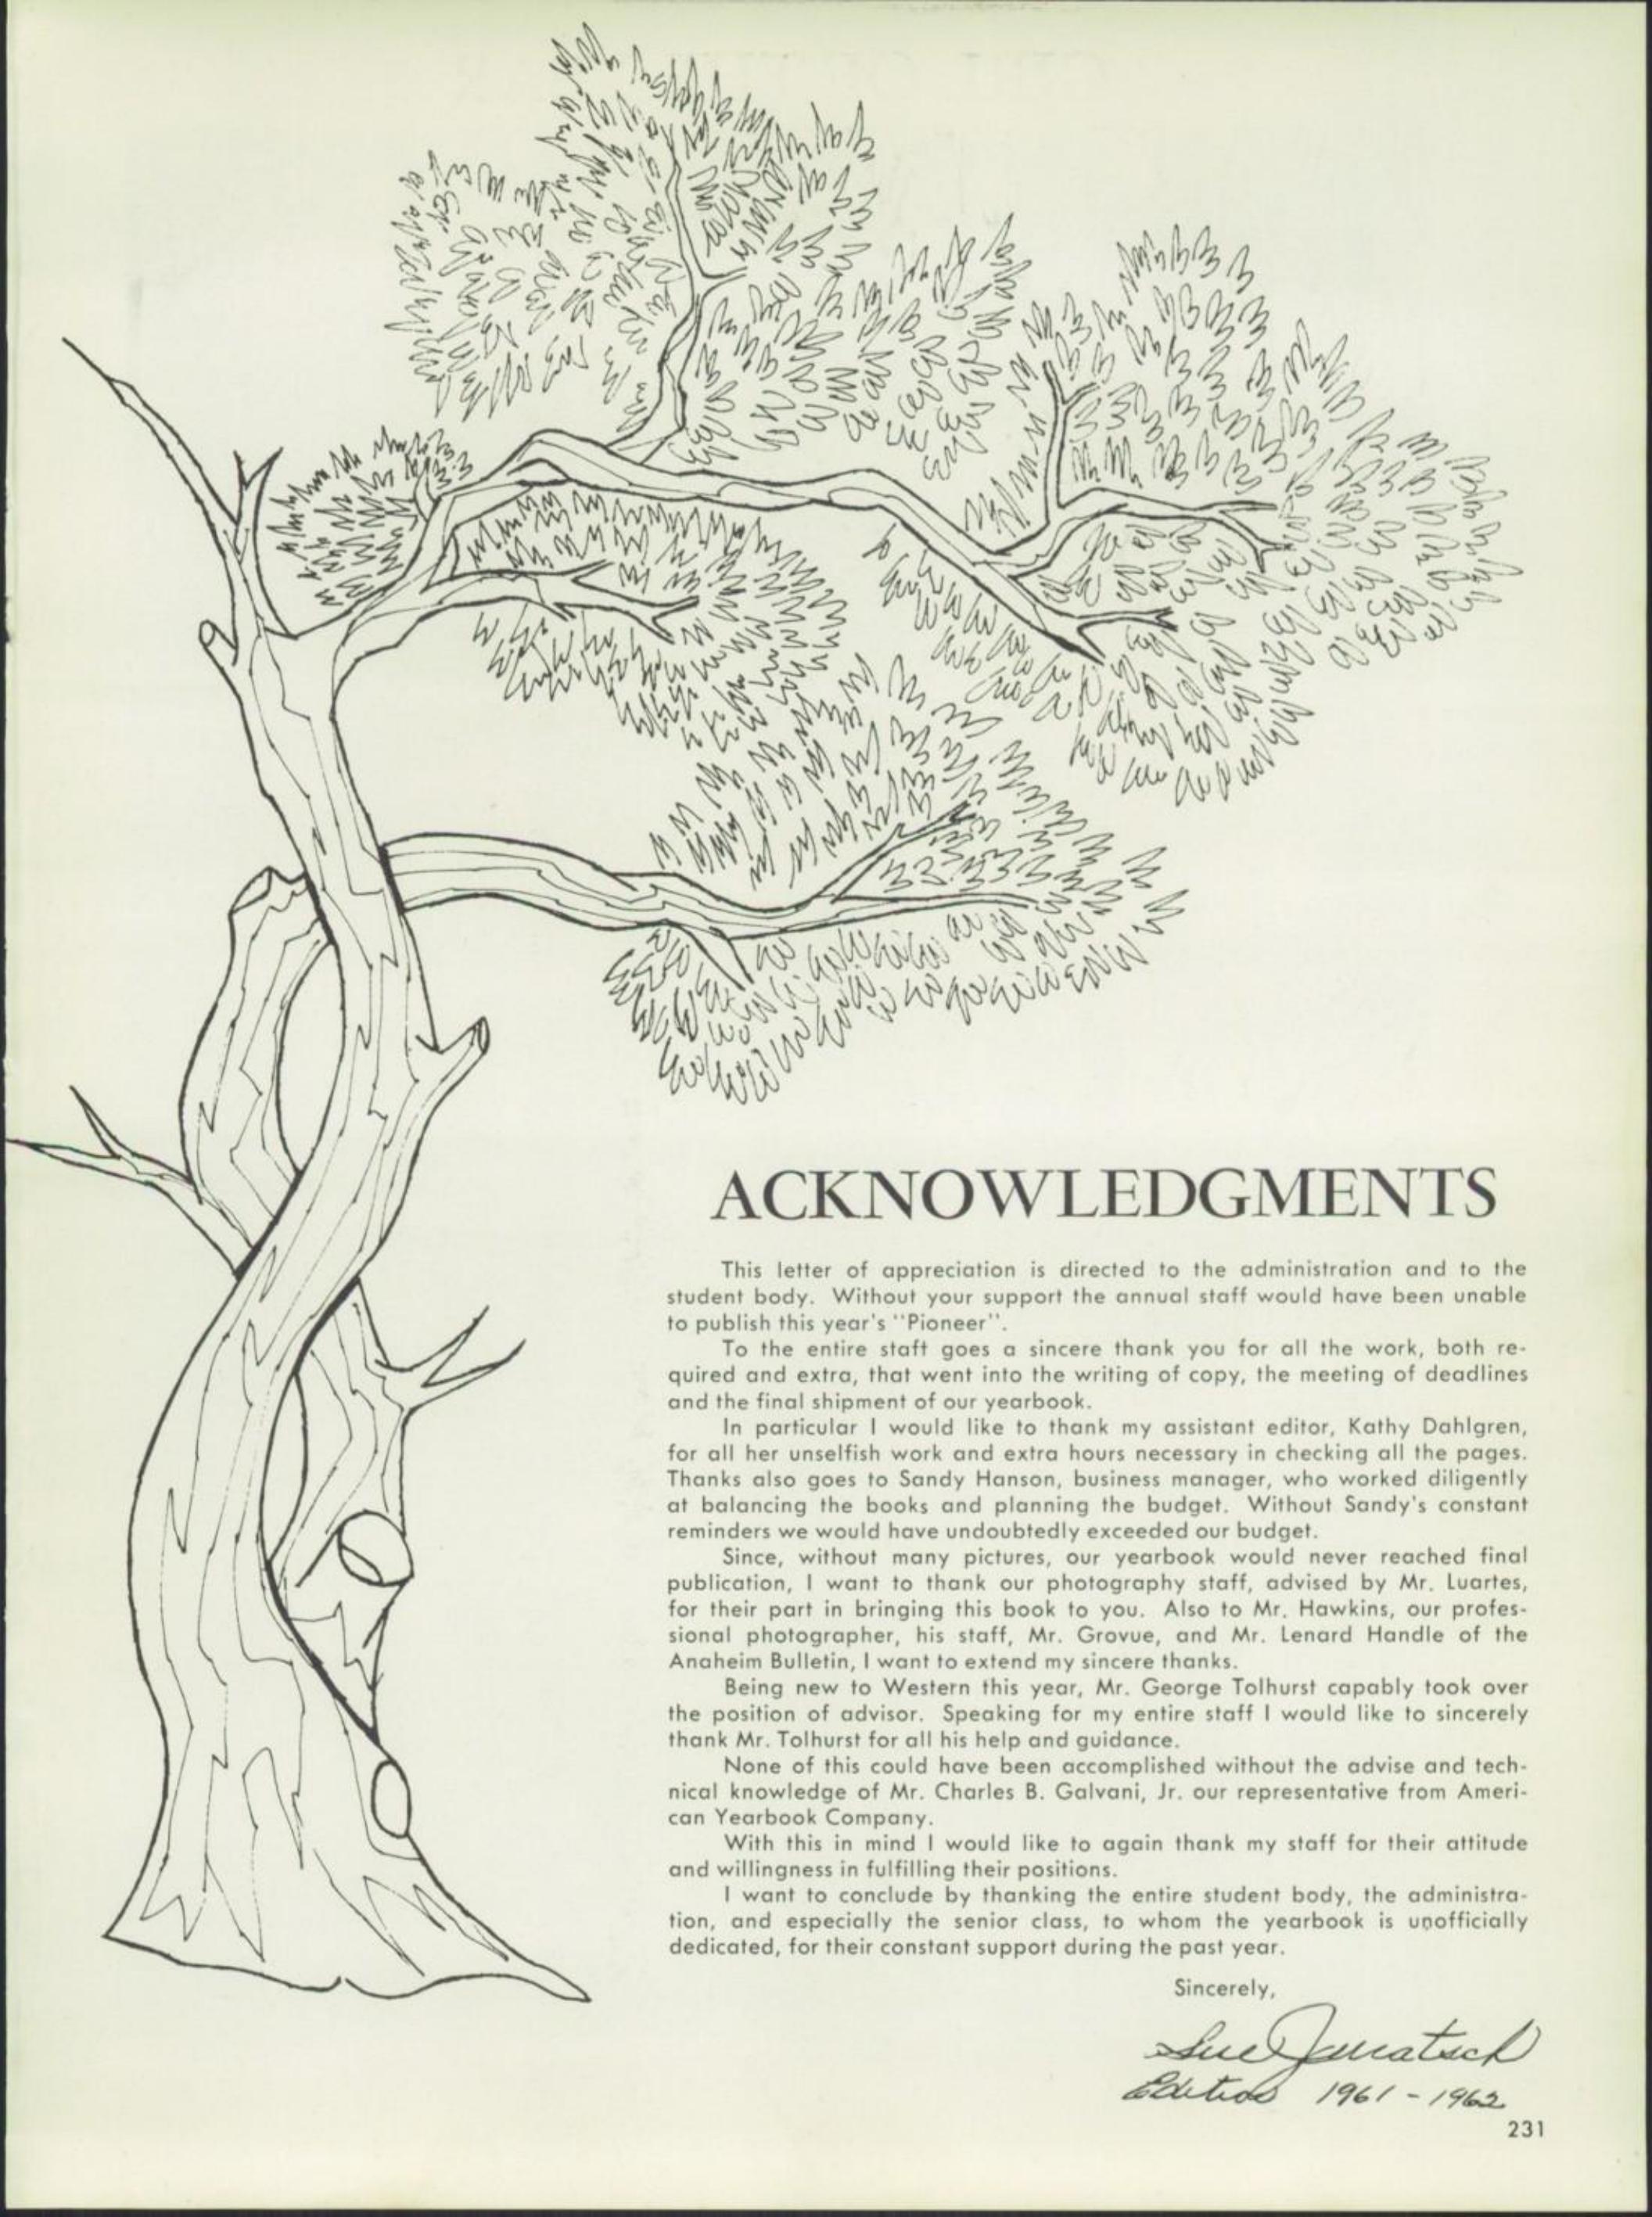

IKUKO "SUSIE" IWASHITA

The highest honor that can be given to a member of the Girls' Athletic Association of Western High School is to be chosen "Outstanding G.A.A. Senior." To receive such an honor, the girl must have been an active member of the organization, possess outstanding athletic ability, maintain a high scholastic average, and must have gained the respect and admiration of all members of the G.A.A. The recipient of the honor for 1962 is Ikuko "Susie" Iwashita.

The quiet efficiency of "Susie" has made her a leader in G.A.A. since her sophomore year. She has capably held many offices and chairmanships, as well as being an outstanding participant in basketball, field hockey, volleyball, and softball.

"Susie" has an outstanding scholastic record, shown by membership in the National Honor Society.

The respect and admiration that is felt by G.A.A. members was shown when they selected "Susie" as the Outstanding Senior of 1962.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This letter of appreciation is directed to the administration and to the student body. Without your support the annual staff would have been unable to publish this year's "Pioneer".

To the entire staff goes a sincere thank you for all the work, both required and extra, that went into the writing of copy, the meeting of deadlines and the final shipment of our yearbook.

In particular I would like to thank my assistant editor, Kathy Dahlgren, for all her unselfish work and extra hours necessary in checking all the pages. Thanks also goes to Sandy Hanson, business manager, who worked diligently at balancing the books and planning the budget. Without Sandy's constant reminders we would have undoubtedly exceeded our budget.

Since, without many pictures, our yearbook would never reached final publication, I want to thank our photography staff, advised by Mr. Luartes, for their part in bringing this book to you. Also to Mr. Hawkins, our professional photographer, his staff, Mr. Grovve, and Mr. Lenard Handle of the Anaheim Bulletin, I want to extend my sincere thanks.

Being new to Western this year, Mr. George Tolhurst capably took over the position of advisor. Speaking for my entire staff I would like to sincerely thank Mr. Tolhurst for all his help and guidance.

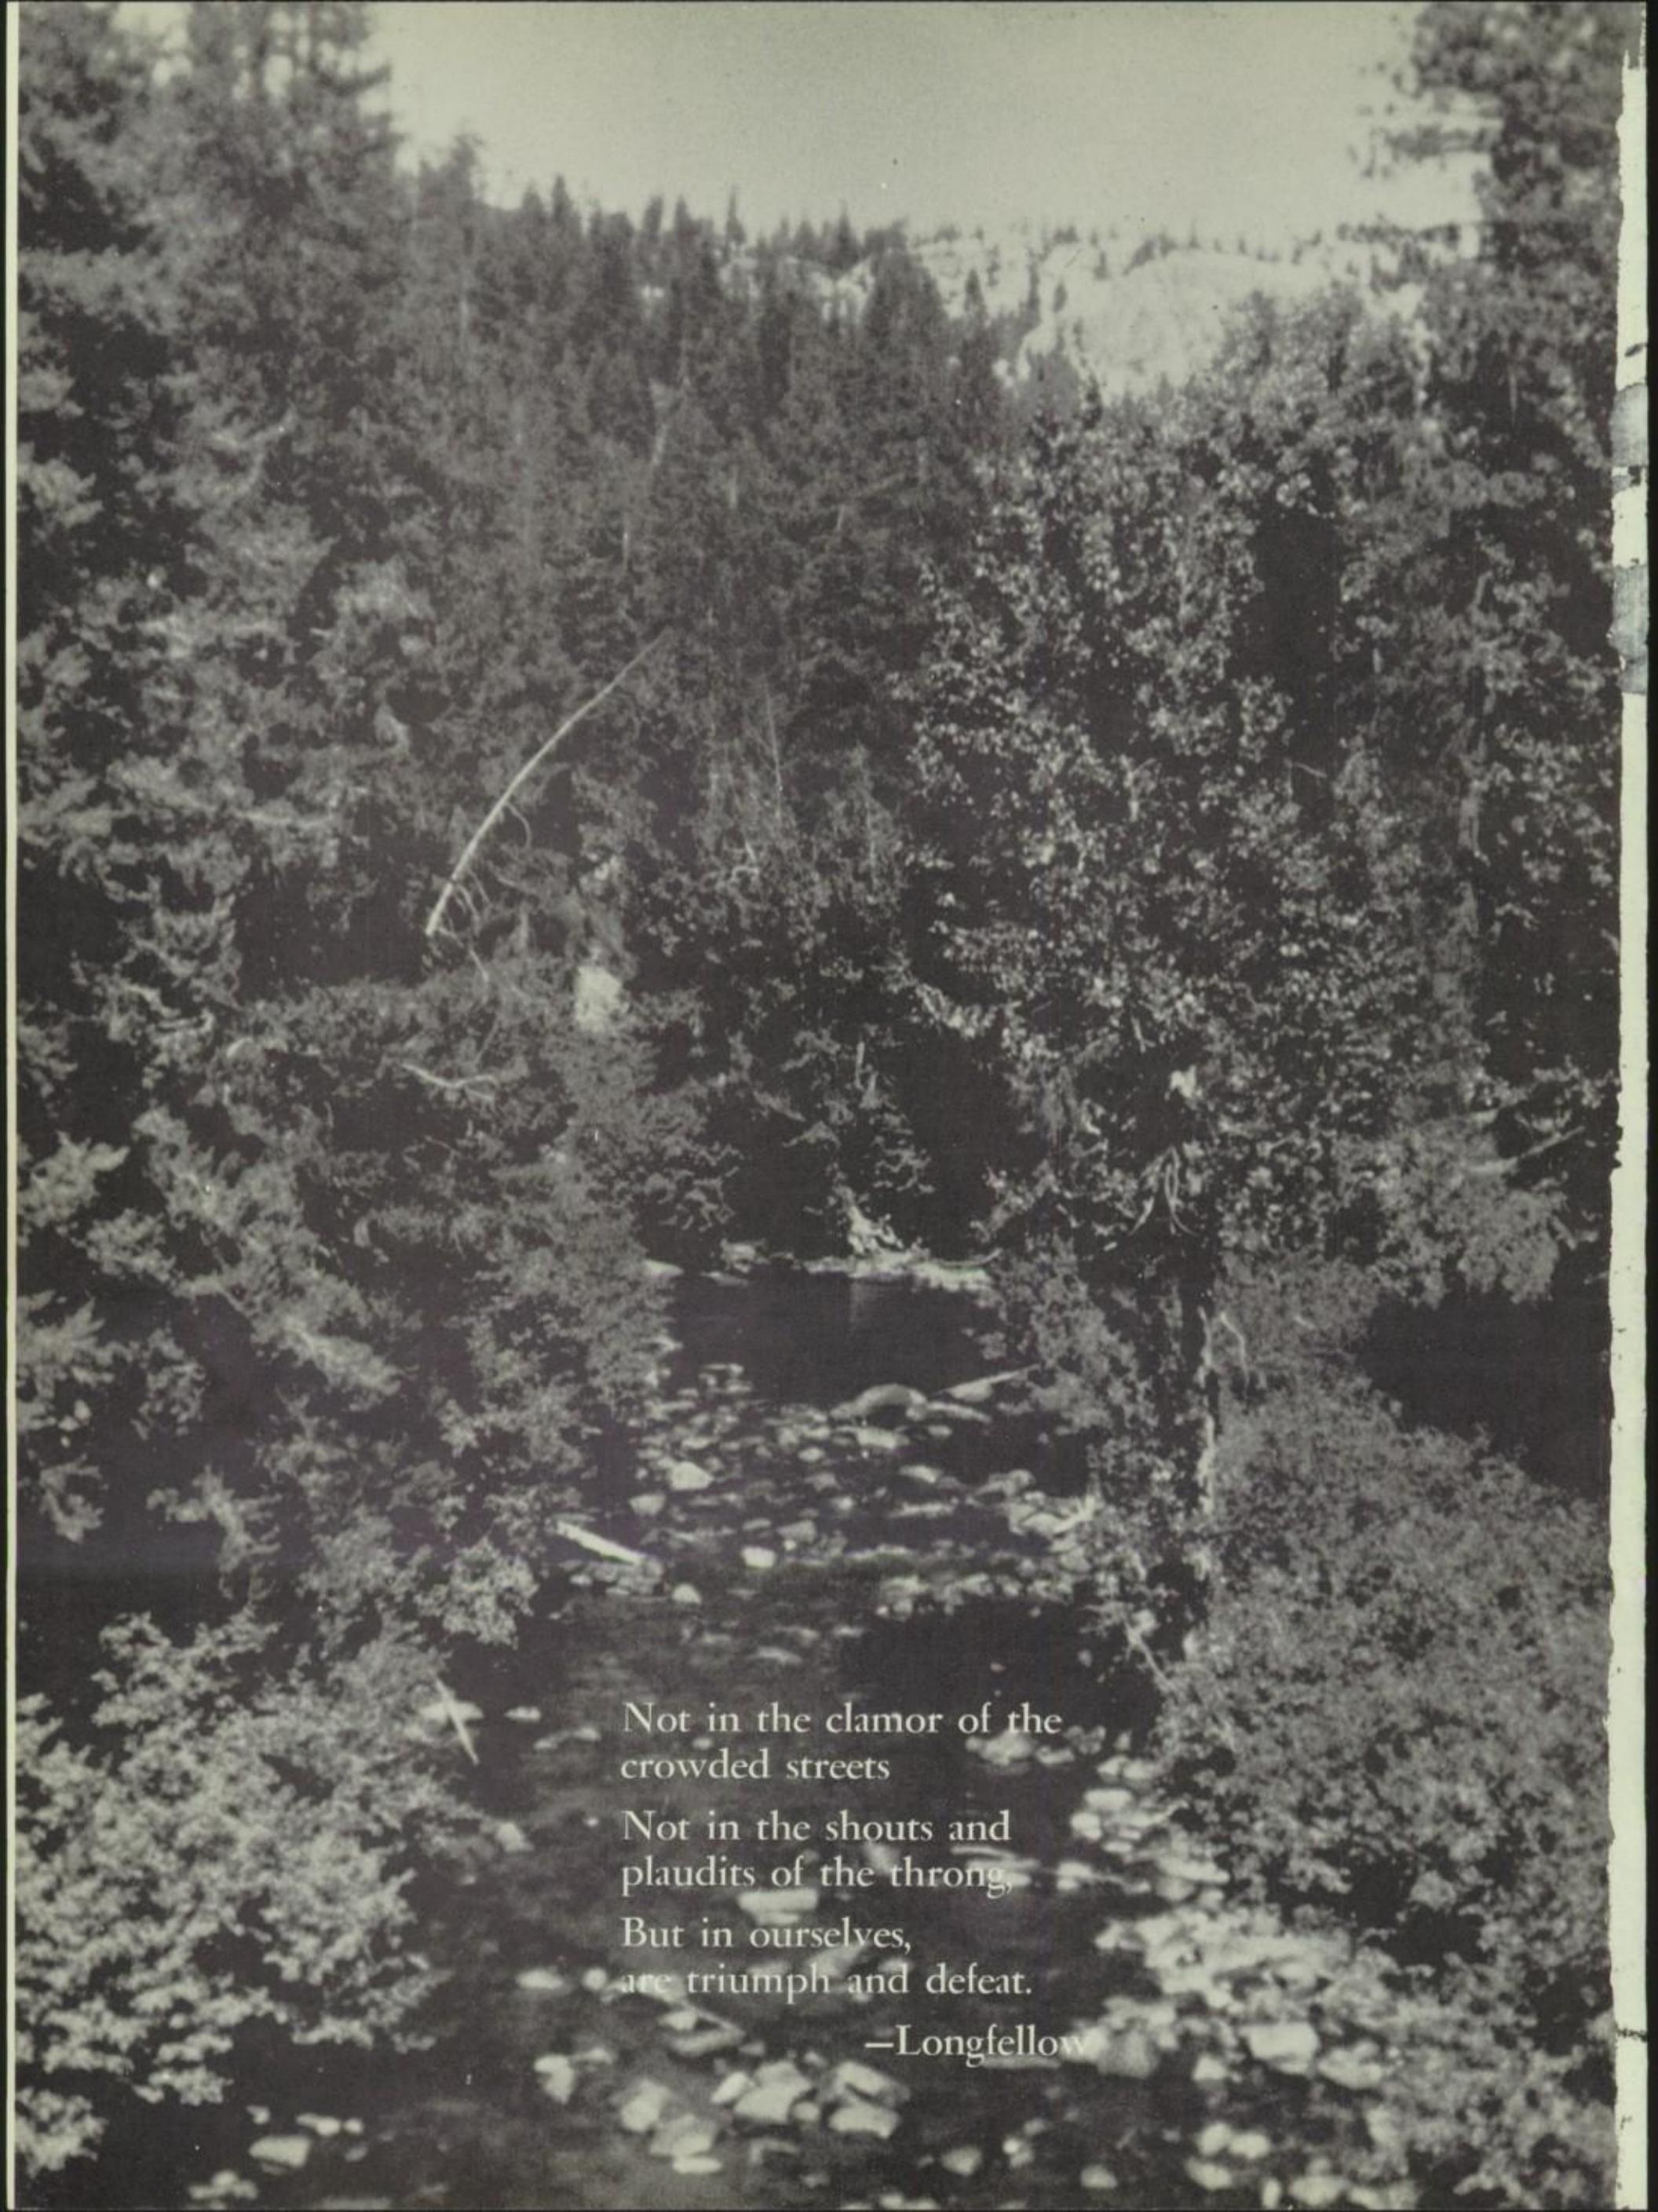

None of this could have been accomplished without the advise and technical knowledge of Mr. Charles B. Galvani, Jr. our representative from American Yearbook Company.

With this in mind I would like to again thank my staff for their attitude and willingness in fulfilling their positions.

I want to conclude by thanking the entire student body, the administration, and especially the senior class, to whom the yearbook is unofficially dedicated, for their constant support during the past year.

Sincerely,

*Sue Jernatuck
Editor 1961-1962*
